- 2) Determining whether grant conditions were met; and
- 3) Improving our future grantmaking policies and priorities.

When reviewing proposals from an organization which has received prior funding, staff considers the submission and content of prior final reports. In addition, these final reports assure that the WCF has met our legal obligations as an organization and to our donors.

Report forms will be included with the grant contract. You may also download the report form from our website. You should complete the cover sheet, answer all the questions on page two and then mail or email the report to the Foundation office prior to your report deadline date.
