

“I care.”

For nearly 25 years, I have been a member of the Woodbury community. Throughout that time I have watched our wonderful city develop and flourish. And while the needs of our community have changed with time, the principle to give back has not. Through my work with CorTrust Bank and the Woodbury Community Foundation, I have remained committed to supporting all that makes our city great.

I am proud to work with the Woodbury Community Foundation and the Woodbury Cares initiative to ensure our community continues to thrive for years to come. Together we can make Woodbury an even better place to call home for future generations.
